About the American Language Institute (ALI)

For over 30 years, students from more than 25 countries have come to the ALI each semester to improve their English skills. Whether it's for academic and professional purposes or personal enrichment, we have a program for every need!

Programs

The ALI has four main programs to prepare international students for academic and professional success:

- Intensive English Program (IEP)
- Intensive Preparatory Program (PREP)
- MBA Prep Program (MBAP)
- Global Logistics Specialist, International (GLSI)

In addition, the ALI provides Customized Short-Term programs for groups. For example, these may include English for Healthcare, Hospitality Services, Engineers, or Business.

CSULB Access and Student Life

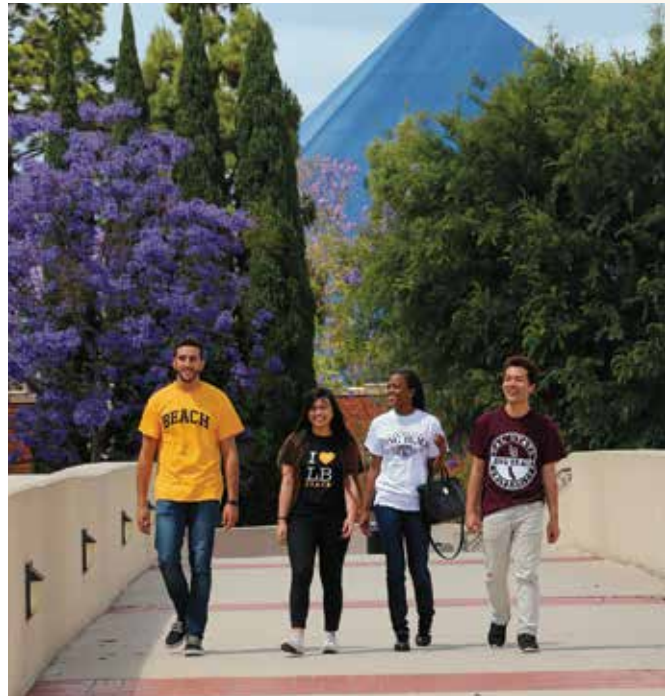

All ALI students:

- take classes in classrooms across the CSULB campus
- can use university facilities and resources (including on-campus housing)
- can join CSULB clubs, including intramural sports teams
- can participate in student events (guest speakers, sports, entertainment, music, and the arts)
- have access to free Wi-Fi on campus

Free Conversation and Homework Labs:

- Conversation Lab gives ALI students the opportunity to meet and interact with Conversation Partners, who are CSULB students and native English speakers.
- In the Homework Lab, trained student tutors provide ALI students with help on homework assignments while practicing skills learned in class.

Campus Housing

CSULB has 18 residence hall buildings on campus and an off-site residential complex, which is connected via CSULB shuttle services that circulate a selected route every 15 minutes. Standard accommodation is double occupancy (two students share a room) and triple occupancy (three students share a room). Students enjoy cafeteria-style meals in our dining halls and social activities organized by the Residential Advisors throughout their stay.

Off-Campus Housing

There are many apartments and houses available for rent or lease in the Long Beach area, most within 15 minutes of campus and the ocean. CSULB students use the Long Beach City Transit free of charge, which provides students easy mobility to local dining areas, as well as weekend shopping and other destinations.
